These children were recognised by their teachers for going above and beyond. Showing a really good attitude towards school, trying their best and being kind and responsible. They enjoyed a hot chocolate with the head. It was a magical way to end the week 😊

A busy week back in school, with lots of exciting events arranged for this half term.

The Eisteddfod was thoroughly enjoyed by all the pupils and staff with Hendre being the winning house this year, and Indie Bowler being chaired as Trerobart Primary Bard for 2023, llongyfarchiadau!

World Book Day will be celebrated on Fri 10th March, with the children wearing their PJs to school and bringing along a book to swap, if they so wish. There will be a reading breakfast at 830-900 in the junior hall with refreshments available for children and their accompanying grown up, and also entry to the book raffle for £1. Additional raffle tickets may also be purchased. All funds raised will be used to purchase books for the children.

Comic relief will also be celebrated on Fri 17th March, school council will update you with further information later this week.

Any queries, please telephone the school 01443 790233 or email head@trerobartprimary.rctcbc.cymru I am unable to respond to any dojo messages.
