Headteacher's Blog

I trust that all our families had an enjoyable half term. Many parents and children have shared their delight in receiving a post card from school celebrating their effort and enthusiasm for learning. All feedback is very important for us, so thank you for sharing your opinions.

Family half term project – Our reception windows look simply fantastic. Diolch yn fawr to every family who spent previous time over the half term in order to create such wonder poppies, you must be very proud of your child/children, I know we all are.

Remembrance Service – 11am Thursday 11th November, children will walk to The Cenotaph and participate in our annual remembrance service. School council representatives will lay a wreath created by all the children in Trerobart.

Sponsored Walk – This is due to go ahead on Friday 12th November, if weather permits. Sponsorship forms have been given to all the children. Good luck in collecting sponsors and many, many thanks for supporting the school to be able to purchase some much needed books for the class libraries. The top three fund raising families will receive a thank you gift in recognition for all their efforts.

Children in need – items chosen by the PTA will be on sale next week, with all proceeds going to Pudsey Bear. School council will be releasing a letter this week to share with you their plans for Friday 19th November.

Storyville – New bookshop in Pontypridd, are collaborating with Mrs Davies and Mr Butler to create a Christmas window display. Every child is involved in this very exciting project, we will share with you when the window has been created so that you can visit and enjoy the children's creations. As you are aware, a love of reading is one of our literacy targets this year, so we are simply delighted to be working with our local community.
