Headteacher's Blog

The children have enjoyed telling us all about their Easter holidays, they certainly enjoyed being able to get out and about. Thank you to parents remembering to return reading books received during lockdown and ks3 children bringing their books to school every day. PTA have purchased £500 worth of Oxford Reading Tree books, we were missing several copies and also required additional stories for some of the higher levels. Diolch yn fawr!

Polite reminder – please do not stand in front of any of our gates during drop off and collection as it makes it difficult for parents to pass safely. RCT Highways department have visited the school at the end of the day and have granted us permission to place green cones directly in front of the gates leading onto Grove Terrace. As soon as they arrive they will be used both morning and afternoon to ensure all Trerobart families are safe from harm.

We now have a flag pole proudly displaying our Eco School flag. Thanks again to Mr Monk who donated the pole last summer.

We are now a Bronze Cymraeg Campus school. Mr Rees and the Criw Cymraeg shared all their hard work with several assessors last term. The whole school has worked together, in order to increase our use of Welsh and improve our knowledge and understanding of the importance of being Welsh. We are now working towards the Silver award. Class dojo will be used this week so that you can make an appointment for a telephone conversation to discuss your child's learning with their teacher next week. Enjoy the improved weather this week. Mrs Buckle
