Headteacher's Blog

What a busy week of active learning in Trerobart! The classrooms are fully of fantastic designs of pebble fish based on the story, Only One You. Please, if you get chance take a look at the animated version below, it really is a special book that we felt contained all the messages and affirmations we would the children of Trerobart to have. Keep a look out for photographs of our pebble trail, coming very soon.

We are asking all ks2 children to wear or bring trainers to school every day. There are lots of different outdoor activities planned for the next few weeks. Diolch yn fawr.

Y5 as part of their eco challenges wrote to RCT catering asking about the design of the school menu. As a result of that, they have been asked if they would like to sample a selection of new foods that will be available in September. They obviously said yes, and are very exciting to be able to sample the foods before September.

Here's to another exciting week ahead. Enjoy your weekend everyone.
